OBITUARY

Edwards Chiles, Jr. was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chiles, Sr. on April 17th, 1977. He called 1330 Webster Avenue his home for many years before moving out on his own. Known to everyone as Boom Boom, his life ended suddenly and much too soon on February 22, 2015.

Boom Boom was educated in both the public and private school systems of New York City. He was known for his intelligence, quick wit and love of life. Those who knew him well knew him as a loving and giving soul. He was not one to sugar coat his feelings; he told it like it was, like it or not. He was a protector and always there to lend a hand to those in need. Boom Boom was a lover of music, dancing, friends and family. He could always be seen smiling and laughing, despite whatever he may have been going through.

Boom Boom lived life with passion. He will forever be missed by family and friends who knew and loved him. To mourn his passing, Boom Boom leaves: his father, Edward Chiles, Sr.; his loving sister, Charlene Chiles; the boys, his nephews, Keith Chiles, Sr., Shaquan Chiles and Keith Chiles, Jr.; the girls, his god-daughters, Jatayvia Macedon, Tyquania Chappelle and Mia-lynn Darson; and a host of other loving family and friends. Last but certainly not least, he leaves his mother, Evon Chiles, who stood with him through the highs and the lows, and who will continue to honor and cherish his memory.

Gone way too soon, we will miss you Boom Boom. May you now rest, peacefully!

AFTERGLOW

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
