Obituary

Adelle Valentine was born in Orangeburg, South Carolina on November 21, 1925 to the late Mary Jackson and John Fields. Adelle aka "AD" relocated to New York City in 1954.

She and her family lived on Lenox Avenue and 128th Street, 116th Street and Morningside Avenue and finally moved to Manhattanville projects in 1961 before relocating to Virginia Beach, VA in 2000.

Adelle was a very stern, but much more loving mother and friend. She always wanted the best for her children and therefore was very strict.

She worked for over 16 years for the Board of Education as a school lunch aide and retired on March 14, 1996.

On February 20, 2015, God called her home. She was very calm and peaceful when she left and finally rid of the pain and suffering of her body.

She is preceded in death by three daughters, Barbara Jean Webster, Carol Wakefield, Hattie Crombie and one son, Saul "Bubba" Wallace, also four sisters, Bobbie, Queen, Mae, Lucille and one brother, Freddy. Lastly a granddaughter, Anike Grace.

Adelle leaves to cherish her memory: her husband of 40 years, Edward Valentine; a sister, Helen Sheppard; a daughter, Mary Lutale; and a son, Louis Frazier and wife, Nadeen. Adelle also leaves eighteen grandchildren, Erik, Derek, Bobby, with mother, Laura Wallace, Beryl, Angie, Alton, Fatiah, Natosha, Herbert, Jacque, Jenine, Yvonne, Crystal, Tiffany, Julian, Justin, Corey and Kristen; and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends to include Margaret, MaryAnn, Mattie of VA, and Alice.

Her memory will live forever in our hearts, minds and spirits.

Death is never a tragedy. It is always a gift. You and God are one. There is no separation between you. In death you will be greeted by all your loved ones that have died before you.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
