Reflections of Life

Dorothy Roseborough-Gantt was born on July 12, 1915 in Camden, South Carolina to the late Lizzie Roseborough as the only child. She spent her early years in the south, where she had four children.

In 1944, her venture brought her to New York City. There she met John Gantt they had two children together.

She was a member of Saint Paul Community Church where she worked on many boards until her health started failing her. She was relocated to Preakness Health Center in Wayne, New Jersey, where she stayed until her passing.

She leaves to mourn: one son, James Roseborough (Minnie) of Columbia, South Carolina; one daughter, Elizabeth Dix of Paterson, New Jersey; a daughter-in-law, Millie Roseborough of Paterson, New Jersey; six grandchildren, Sonia Roseborough, Gary Dix, Stevie Roseborough, Eugene Dix, Timothy Jenkins and William Bryant; seven great grandchildren, Jeffery Roseborough, India Dix-Robbins, Maurice Roseborough, Aaron Dix, Nyeeje Dix, Chase and Wade Bryant; two great-great grandchildren, Ryleigh and Harper Robbins.

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your weary face.
He put His arm around you
And lifted you to rest
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the roads were getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be Thine"
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day He called you home.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of kindness, love and concern shown to us. During this very difficult time.

May God bless you and keep you.

The Family

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths. Proverbs 3:5,6
