Obituary

On February 26, 2015, Frances J. Domond (Aunt Enid) unexpectedly passed away leaving one daughter, Paulette) and one grandson (Gary). Frances was born August 10, 1936 to Eustace and Eva Martin in St. Elizabeth, Jamaica. Frances also left behind three sisters, two brothers, nieces, nephews and friends.

To all those who got the opportunity to know, meet, and work with Frances, they got to experience the personality of warmth and kindness. Her meek and pleasantness was loved and welcomed by all. In all she did on this earth, she placed the well-being of others before hers. She was consistent with her generosity and radiant with her smile.

In times of difficulty, she was a symbol of logic and calmness; she prevailed over the many decades by maintaining a personality of strength and steadfastness. Her wisdom has always been and remains to be an iconic and guiding light towards the shores of happiness. In essence, her end can be seen as a beginning where her seeds of life can glow from within all of us who knew and loved her dearly.

Frances spent her life as a devoted Christian and as such, loved the Lord. From an early age, she committed her life and was baptized. Up until her passing, she was an active member of Mount Carmel Holiness Church in Newark, New Jersey.

Though her passing brings us sadness to have lost such an exceptional person, her memory will always remain deep in our respective and collective hearts. From her trademarked simple and welcoming smile to her pleasant nod of approval, she will always be with us. We love you Frances, heaven welcomes you.

When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little-but not too long, And not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me-but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take, And each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan, A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, Go to the friends we know. And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

On behalf of the family, we would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere gratitude for the many kind expressions of sympathy given to us during our time of bereavement. May God forever bless and keep you in His tender, loving care. The family will acknowledge at a later date, all cards, flowers and condolences. Whatever you did to make our hearts lighter during our time of bereavement is greatly appreciated.
