Obituary

Hunter Nepolyan Ferguson was born on February 20, 1946, the son of Margaret Lee Ferguson and William Ferguson. At a very young age Hunter lost his mother. His aunt, Annie Lee, stepped in and raised Hunter as one of her own children. Even though Barbara Robinson and James Mattaur are his first cousins they are more like his sister and brother.

Hunter relocated with his aunt to Montclair, NJ when he was 14 years old. There he attended and graduated from Montclair High School. After high school Hunter attended the school of dentistry in Washington, D.C. There he met and married Sandra Anderson Ferguson. They had two children, Stephanie Ferguson and Jeffrey Ferguson.

Hunter worked for Essex County Hospital, where he was well liked and respected, for over thirty years. He loved his job and he was very good at it. He also loved to bowl and won several trophies. Hunter had a love for people and looked for the best in everyone. He would help anyone in need.

Hunter had an outrageous sense of humor with a laugh you could not forget. He loved to talk on the phone with his friends for hours at a time. Hunter was an exceptional cook and loved fried chicken. Anyone who was lucky enough to have a piece of his was in for a treat. Hunter touched a lot of people's lives. He leaves us with many fond memories, good laughs and good times.

Hunter was preceded in death by his mother, Margaret Lee-Ferguson, his father, William Ferguson, his aunt, Annie Lee, uncle, Thomas Lee, and his wife, Sandra Anderson Ferguson.

Hunter Ferguson leaves behind to cherish his memory: his daughter, Stephanie Ferguson; his son, Jeffrey Ferguson; grandchildren, Sandra, Riley and Malachi; cousins, Barbara Robinson, James Mattaur, Nicole Gordon, Cherine Robinson, Geraldine Lockhart, Victor Mattaur, Hassan Mattaur and Tab Cox; sister-in-law, Delores Trammel; brother-in-law, James Trammel; nephew, Jace Trammel; and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
