Obituary

Joseph Hill, Jr. known as “Joe Boy” was born to the late Mrs. Edna and Joseph Hill, Sr. on June 3, 1956 in Manhattan Flower 5th Avenue Hospital.

Joseph Jr. attended both Commander John J. Shea and Rice High School. After graduating from Rice High School, he served fifteen years in the service in the United States Air Force. While being in the U.S. Air Force, he traveled to different countries such as (Philippines, Panama...). Not only did he travel, he was a Sergeant in the U.S. Air Force as well. Joseph Jr. had a trained K-9 military dog named Major which was strictly his dog. Besides being a hero to others, to us he was laid back, quiet and enjoyed laughing at jokes.

He leaves to mourn: his sisters, Mrs. Barbara Hill-McNeal, Mrs. Kimberly Hill-Cephas; his brother, Mr. Michael A. Hill; his brothers-in-law, Johnny and Greg; his sister-in-law, Mary Joan Hill (of New York City, now living in St. Petersburg, FL with her husband, Michael); his nephews, Tramaine Hill of Austin, TX, and Gregory Cephas, Jr. of New York City; his nieces, Dana Parks, Michelle Hill, Giselle Hill and Ambrea Cephas; and also a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.

Joseph was a son, brother, uncle and a good friend who will be missed dearly.

To My Brother Joe

*Even though during the years
our lives were crossed,
our memories and tears helped us through our fears.
I can't imagine in a million years, you left me here filled with tears. You left a big hole in my heart that makes me feel so apart. I know you had to go someday, but why today?
Now I feel like I have nothing, eventually we made amends with one another which is something. There was a lesson to all of this, it shows that life is too short for all of this nonsense.*

From baby sis, Kim

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
