Obituary

Anthony Bernard Hill was born on July 12, 1962 in the Bronx, New York to the late Doris Elizabeth Hill and the late Robert Nathaniel Hill. He departed this life on March 10, 2015. In 1999, Anthony found the love of his life, Sharon and the two became one. Anthony's pride and joy, Brandon Hill was the light of his life; not a day went by without Anthony talking about how proud he was of him.

Anthony took pride in his career as a supervisor at the Department of Social Services for twenty-five years. Anthony was an extremely smart man, with honorable grades from Bolyan Haven Mather Academy followed by Herbert Lehman College. He was a big Mets fan like his dad, and a big Minnesota Vikings fan as well. His passions were BBQ grilling in the summertime, making everyone around him laugh, playing his video games and calling his nieces, nephews "Meat head" which they all loved, it became a family tradition.

Anthony leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Sharon; his son, Brandon Hill; two stepsons, William Bell and Michael Powell; his sisters, Elnora Tomlin (husband, Thomas) and Patricia Hill (husband, Chica); brothers, Robert Hill, Jr. (wife, Catherine) and Arnold Hill (wife, Chereese); fifteen nieces and nephews; and a host of devoted aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
