Obituary

Adam Alexander Mack was born in Harlem on December 28, 1958 to Adam Davis and Vernice Mack. He was the second of six children.

He attended New York City Public Schools and graduated in June 1977 from Charles Evans Hughes High School. At this time he met his future wife, Jo-Anne. Adam joined the United States Marine Corps in January 1980. After being honorably discharged, he worked at Mabel Dean Bacon High School as a paraprofessional. He also worked with Mr. Renny at his catering business and Daphne's Hibiscus Restaurant where he learned to make a mean pot of cow peas and rice!

Adam and Jo-Anne affectionately known as "Josey" were married on June 4, 1986. They had two daughters, Naomi and Nikki. Adam studied with Jehovah's Witnesses up until his death.

Amongst family and friends, Adam was known as a very funny person. He kept people laughing, and as his mother says, "he could make a dog laugh". But on the serious side, he would give you the shirt off his back if you needed his help.

Adam shared a close relationship with his mother, Vernice Mack. If he was not visiting, he called her. He loved her cooking!!

On Thursday, March 12, 2015, Adam left this earth suddenly. He has left to mourn: his mother, Vernice Mack; father, Adam Davis; children, Terrance, Naomi, Nikki, and Adam; wife, Josey; siblings, Janice, Timmy, Vanessa, James and Davita; aunt, Edna Mack; grandchildren, Carrell, Chad and Chayce; his mother-in-law, Anne Robinson; his godfather and mentor, William Barnes; nieces and nephews, Lamour, Marquis, Linniece, Jaros, Nia, Mychael and Tylen; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
