Obituary

The Lord Giveth And The Lord Taketh Away; Blessed Be The Name Of The Lord.

Sarah Rebecca Fludd-Webber was born November 3, 1931 to her mother, the late Rebecca Flood. She was raised by her maternal grandparents the late Elizabeth Smalls and the late Lincoln Smalls in Summerville, S.C.

Sarah was educated in the Dorchester County Public School System in Summerville, S.C. She was baptized at an early age and joined the Canaan United Methodist Church in South Carolina.

Sarah relocated to Vicksburg, MS. She was united in marriage to Alonzo Webber, Sr. on January 9, 1949. To this union four children were born.

Sarah relocated to New Jersey several years later and found employment in the domestic field. She was a loving mother and grandmother who enjoyed cooking for everyone. Sarah was well known at New Community Manor Senior in Newark, NJ where she resided for several years. She enjoyed the various activities while attending Happy Days Adult Day Health Center in Newark, NJ.

Sarah was preceded in death by: her spouse, Alonzo Webber, Sr.; one daughter, Loretta Watson; and two sons, Alonzo Webber, Jr. and Franklin Stanley Webber.

Sarah R. Webber leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Cathy Minor (son-in-law, John) of Scotch Plains, NJ; one son, Dwayne Webber (daughter-in-law, Mary Grace) of Brick, NJ; a son-in-law, Jerry Watson; fourteen grandchildren and twenty-four great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, many other relatives and special friends.

Repast

Kings Family Restaurant & Catering 557 Clinton Avenue Newark, NJ 07108 Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God has chosen for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call; I turned my back and left it all.

I'm Free

I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I've now found peace at the end of day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; Oh yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seems all to brief; Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief. Lift up your heart and peace to thee, God wanted me now-He set me free!
