Obituary

Tommie L. Newman was born May 23, 1919 in Abbeville, AL to the Late Charles Williams and Annie Lou Crawford/Williams. She was the oldest of seven children. Tommie passed away and entered Eternal Rest on March 19, 2015 in the Acute ER Unit of St. Barnabas Hospital in Livingston, NJ.

Tommie married the late Johnnie F. Newman in 1935 at the age of sixteen, and the two moved to Cleveland, Ohio. In the 1940's Tommie and her husband relocated to Newark, NJ.

Tommie was employed by Industrial Instruments in Elizabeth, NJ for a few years. In 1956, she started working for Western Electric. She worked there until she retired in the late 1970's to care for her husband. Johnnie passed away in 1981. After his death, Tommie became involved in volunteer work. She drove for the Cancer Society until approximately 2011. She received many awards for her service during this time.

Tommie became a member of Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church under Reverend Mapson, and remained a faithful member until her death. She supported the "Culinary Staff" of which she was a member for many years.

Tommie loved fishing and driving. She and her sisters traveled throughout the country once or twice a year. She also enjoyed baking for her family and friends who loved to receive her "signature pound cake", which she shipped to them no matter where they might live.

Tommie was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, one sister and four nephews.

Tommie Newman leaves to mourn her loss: four sisters, Hattie Lamar of Newark, NJ, Everie Williams of Orange, NJ, Mary Harris and Anna L. Ragsdale of Lakeland, FL; nieces and nephews to whom she was very close; and a host of other relatives and friends.
