Obituary

Tyrone Webb, Sr. was born in Newark, NJ on January 19, 1950. He was the fourth child of Archie and Haley Webb.

After graduating from Barringer High School, Tyrone went on to serve in the US Army where he was honorably discharged in 1976. He then went on to receive his Black Seal Boiler License which he kept active for almost 40 years. Tyrone found his passion in “fixing things” and received several certificates in electronics and learned plumbing and home renovations through on the job training.

Tyrone loved working with his hands. He had several jobs working in apartment buildings, nursing homes, and residential homes. It was at his first job as a “super” where he met and married Joy and was blessed with his pride and joy, his son, Tyrone Webb, Jr.

Tyrone always had a strong sense of family and valued every minute spent with them. He would always tell his children and grandchildren how proud he was and let them know how much he loved them on daily basis.

Tyrone was preceded in death by his parents, Archie and Haley Webb and his brother, William Webb.

Tyrone is survived by: his wife, Joy Webb; three children, Selene Ramsey, Silvonne Webb, and Tyrone Webb, Jr. (TJ); two grandchildren, Marcus and Andre Ramsey; son-in-law, Victor Ramsey; two sisters, Merline Douglass-Taylor and Alberta Hughes; brother-in-law, Harold Hughes; one brother, Donald Webb; aunts and uncles, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many, many friends.

The Family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
