Obituary

Constance L. Wright was born in Richmond, VA October 4, 1941. She was adopted as a toddler by Pearl and Robert Brown, also of Richmond and joined the family where she had their love, affection and an older sister, Ms. Francis V. Fox.

Known as “Connie”, she progressed through her education in Richmond public schools, graduating from Maggie L. Walker High School. Connie married Melvin D. Wright (now deceased) and together they moved to New York City, starting their chapter as a family.

Connie loved serving and giving to people, reflected in her vocations which included Nursing Assistance, Child Care, and Secretarial Services. While she labored and retired from the State of New York Department of Mental Services, her love and life’s work was in providing administrative services to the Pastor and Parishioners at Metropolitan Baptist Church in the Village of Harlem, New York City.

Connie is survived by: her sister, Francis V. Fox; her two sons, James Williams and Kenneth Wright; a cousin, Melvin R. Fox; her most dear friend, Anne Williams and her daughter, Stephanie Moss; grandchildren, Tia Williams and Brianna Wright; a great grandchild, Leah Wright; and hundreds of extended family and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
