Obituary

Stephanie Yvette Wilson, daughter of Charliemae Wilson and stepdaughter of Willard Redden was born on August 2, 1967 in New York City.

She received her education at Martin Luther King High School, she graduated with honors. She continued her education at Baruch College in which she received her associate degree.

Stephanie growing up in a Christian home in which she accepted Christ as her Lord and Saviour at an early age.

She started her career as a fundraiser for Metropolitan House, soon after she was employed by TIAA Cref Financial Services as a loan officer for twenty-five years, during the later part of her employment, Stephanie became ill and was disable.

Stephanie was an inspiration to all that knew her. She was an amazing mother and daughter. Stephanie will be missed for her beautiful smile and charming ways.

We will surely miss her exquisite style and her passion for shopping with such finesse and grace.

May 11, 1997 was one of Stephanie's most precious moments when God blessed her with her son, W. Uriah Campbell. Stephanie loved, cherished and adored him. The love they shared to the very end. Stephanie looked at her son and smiled then took her last breath.

Stephanie always was a mommy's girl. She loved to spend time with her mom every chance she got, Jackie and Stephanie always had a special bond between them and shared their thoughts only with each other.

Stephanie was a beautiful woman inside and out. She always was well put together, her hair, nails and her skin was well cared for.

Stephanie leaves: her son, W. Uriah Campbell; her mother, Charliemae (Jackie) Wilson; her stepfather, Willard Redden; stepsisters, Laura Redden and Loretta Redden; companion, Tyrone Campbell; uncles, Herron Wilson and Leonard Wilson; one aunt, Lisa Wilson; and a host of cousins and friends.

If I could write from Heaven

this is what I'd say,
Please don't miss me too much,
I'm with you throughout your day.
You may not see or hear me,
but if you're quiet and still,

You may just FEEL MY PRESENCE;
because, in Heaven, there is free will.
Don't worry for the day,
it will come and go as planned,

Enjoy each moment you are given,

Keep worry from your hand.
Keep sorrow to a minimum;
For if Heaven you could see,

You'd know I'm SAFE AND HAPPY,
I did not cease to be.

Moments in time are brief,
until we'll be together again,

as Eternity lasts forever,

our lives, they have no end.

Acknowledgement
