Beloved Mother Sister & Daughter

Lucy L. Simon of Newark, New Jersey was born on June 20, 1957 to Betty Lane and the late Walter Lane, Sr. It was on March 30, 2015 that our Savior saw fit to call upon her to take her place in heaven with her four siblings, Redean Page, Walter Lane, Jr., Anniemae Lane and Johnnie B. Lane, and her father, Walter Lane, Sr.

Lucy worked for Newark Day Center for over ten years; she was a loving and caring soul for the elderly and the sick.

Lucy leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Hishonda Simon; two sons, Hashon Simon and Leroy Simon, Jr.; her mother, Betty Lane; three sisters, Carlis Lane, Annette Flucker and Tracey Lane; one brother, David Lane; nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren; over sixty nieces and nephews; a host of aunts, uncles and cousins; two daughters-in-law, Sumoya Simon and Crystal Burgman; and a host of friends.

Special Thanks she gives to her niece, Simon Lane King, and friends, Leroy Simon and Margaret Simon. My sweet precious Love, you are another flame that has gone out of our candle, but to never be forgotten. We will always love you, but God will love you best!

A Letter To My Sister

For 55 years, 364 days of my life you have loved me and I have loved you. We have shared the strongest bond that sisters can share, not only were you my sister, but you were my best friend. We never had bad words for each other and we never even had a sibling's squabble, we were good together!!!! I missed having you call me on March 31, 2015 wishing me a happy birthday, you always made sure your call was my 1st call!!! I can no longer pick up the phone to call you and make you laugh at the crazy things that I say. You were the best sister that one could ask for. You were my confidant, my ride or die, my sunshine, my rain, you were everything to me and I will forever miss you for the rest of my days. I will Love you always.

Your Sister,
Carlis Lane
