Reflections of Life

Deloris Jean Lemon Dickson was born on November 5, 1940, departed this life on April 2, 2015. Deloris was the only child of Laura Lemon and William Lewis who passed when she was sixteen years old.

Deloris was taken in by her aunt, Minnie and Lloyd Cotonan in Charles City, Virginia where she lived until completing high school, and then moved to Richmond, Virginia and went to Business School. Deloris seeking employment, moved to Jersey City, NJ and worked in New York City for Deutsche Bank from 1974 until retiring in 2001.

On December 22, 1973, Deloris married James Dickson in her hometown of Charles City, VA and enjoyed forty-one years of marriage. Deloris was a friend to all she met and was active in her community working for the Weed and Seed program and her leisure time she enjoyed Broadway Plays, reading, knitting and traveling and a longtime member of Bethel Baptist Church.

She leaves to cherish her memories: a devoted husband, James A. Dickson (Orange, NJ); a daughter and son-in-law, Wanda Lemon Blackburn and Al Blackburn; one son, Terrance Lemon; two grandchildren, Nicole Blackburn and Jonathan Blackburn; a stepdaughter, Sonya Wilson and Elron Wilson; and step-grandson, Terek Wilson; three very special cousins, Marie and Daniel Kelly, Dana and Sheldon Webster, and Ralph Lemon, Jr.

The Lord Replied, "My Precious Precious Child", I love you and I would never leave you during your times of trial and suffering, when you only saw one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you.
