Reflections of Betty Clark

Betty Clark was born in Columbia South Carolina to the proud parents of Beatrice and Ulysses McCoy on June 10, 1949. She was the youngest of twelve children. Her siblings are; Mary Louise McCoy, Susie Mae McCoy, Ethal Mae McCoy, Nanny Mae McCoy, James McCoy, Herman McCoy, Pinky Mae McCoy, Johnny McCoy, Willie McCoy, Charles McCoy, Ora Lee McCoy. Twenty-six nieces and twenty-two nephews.

Betty enjoyed snuggling up with a good crossword puzzle before bed every night and was very spiritual person. She became a member of Goodwill Baptist Church over twenty years ago.

Betty moved to New York, settling in the borough of the Bronx with her nine children. Four boys; Robert Clark Jr., Maurice Clark, Billy Wright and Lonnie Wright. Five girls; Stacy Smith, Eartha Lee Clark, Shaniqua Clark, Wilma Barton and Renee Wright. She also leaves behind nine grandsons, nine granddaughters and eight great-grandchildren.

She touched many lives and will surely be missed. We love and miss you.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
