She married the late Robert Lee Pearson, Sr. on June 30, 1956. Through this union six children were born. Robert and Betty Jo relocated to New Jersey where they raised their children. Betty Jo retired from Clara Maass Medical Center in 2007.

She was known as “grandma” to those who knew her in her New Jersey neighborhood. She was well respected and loved by all. Betty Jo exemplified the love of Christ to all. She was always cooking and feeding everyone. When her children or grands would do something she didn’t approve of, she would say “you’re on notice”.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
