Reflections of Life

Mary Tyler Bragg was born to the late Albert Fields and Jennie E. Tyler on September 3, 1930 in Philadelphia, PA.

In 1955, Mary married her beloved husband, Albert Leroy “Red” Bragg. This marriage lasted forty-five years, until he departed this life. This union blessed them with one daughter to share in every way possible.

Mary was a member of the Second Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. James E. Moore, Sr., until her health began to fail.

She was employed by Pathmark as a Meat Packer where she remained until her retirement. Mary was a very outspoken woman that never had a problem speaking her mind.

Mary was preceded in death by her husband, Albert L Bragg, her father, Albert Fields and her mother, Jennie E. Tyler.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Tami Bernardo (Roger) of Elizabeth, NJ, seven grandchildren, Kraig L. Bragg, Tasia St. Louis (Randy), Shantae Bernardo, Lynette Bernardo, Tara Bernardo, Roger Bernardo Jr. and Dana Bernardo. two brothers-in-law, Theodore Bragg (Marilyn) and Randolph Bragg (Libby) and three great-grandchildren, her honorary niece, Denise Wadley Smith; and a host of relatives and friends.

Lovingly known as “Miss Mary”, she will be especially missed by Ebony Davis. Ebony started as a caretaker and quickly became her confidant special friend and extended family until her final breath.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the Sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much,
Good Time, Good Friends,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, he set me free.
