Obituary

Camille was born October 6, 1985 to Corris Watson and Stan Charles in the Bronx, New York.

Camille and her twin sister, Candice were homeschooled from preschool through junior high school. Camille attended public high school briefly, but opted to finish her schooling through an alternative education program. Camille entered John Jay College in the fall of 2003. It was during her freshman year that she and Rasheed Akbar gave birth to her first child, Aden.

Camille was in the prestigious CUNY Baccalaureate program. She graduated with honors, with a double major in Justice Studies and Philosophy in 2007. She received the Humanities and Justice award for outstanding senior thesis. Following graduation, Camille entered Long Island University's graduate program. She graduated with a Masters in Library Science in 2010. Camille worked at various places, including the New York City Bar Association and the CUNY Graduate Center.

Camille married Eric Kantor on May 31, 2009. This union produced two children, Liat and Ari. Camille was a devoted family person, and a great mother.

Camille died at home in Ossining, New York on April 10, 2015.

Camille leaves to mourn: her husband, Eric; her mother, Corris; her father, Stan; her children, Aden, Liat and Ari; her sisters, Candice and Shanel; her brother, Sean; her grandmother, Carol; her father-in-law, Martin; her brother-in-law, Kenneth; her step-mother, Judith; her aunts, Carol Regina, Gail, Josephine, and Bernadine; her uncles, Joseph, Charlie, and Peter; and other family members and friends.

Proverbs 31:17

She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

I Did Not Die

Do not stand at my grave and weep:

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow:

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain:

I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the Morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft star that shines at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry.

I am not there: I did not die.

-Melinda Sue Pacho
