Reflections of Life

Evelyn Santiago Feliciano was born on September 20, 1952 in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico to the late Gumercindo Santiago and Antonia Santiago Perez.

At the age of five she relocated to Passaic, NJ where she was educated in the Passaic School System. Evelyn's personality was larger than life. Her loud mouth, warm smile and loving heart endeared everyone who was blessed to know her. However, you knew that she meant business when she looked at you over her glasses.

Evelyn was a Bingo Master and a Slot Machine enthusiast, but nothing gave her more joy than her family. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Her happiest moments always included dinner and laughs with her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and she transitioned from labor to reward on Thursday, April 16, 2015.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her loving and devoted husband, Eduino Feliciano; three daughters, Antonia Santiago, Juanita Lisa Santiago, and Luz Casiano; two brothers, Luis Alberto Santiago and Antonio Rogers; two sisters, Kicisy Rogers and Rosenne Rogers; nine grandchildren, Wilfredo, Frank Jr., Hector Luis, Edwin, Damian, Alex, Tiffany, Tiana, and Anthony Jr., eleven great grandchildren; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
