Obituary

FuQuan Ali A.K.A. Randall Roosevelt Haymon, affectionately known to his family and close friends as “Bootsie”, was born on his mother’s birthday, April 21, in the year 1960. He was born to his parents, Roosevelt Haymon and the late Ida Mae Haymon. FuQuan was born in East Orange, New Jersey and was raised on Prince Street in Newark, New Jersey until the age of five. In 1965, the family relocated to East Orange, New Jersey. He met and married LaVonnyea Patrice Ali in 2003.

FuQuan Ali worked as a forklift operator at Blue Apron Industries. He was educated in the East Orange School District and graduated in 1978 from Clifford J. Scott High School. He furthered his education at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey, where he graduated with an Associate’s Degree in Business Management.

FuQuan was a very wonderful loving husband and best friend to his wife. He was a very outgoing person. He loved to just stay home with his wife, work and he loved Cadillacs. He would wash his car so much you would think the paint was going to come off. FuQuan loved children. He was a very special man, husband and brother.

FuQuan Ali leaves to cherish in his memory: his beloved wife, LaVonnyea P. Ali of Carbondale, PA; his father and his wife, Roosevelt Haymon and Norma Haymon; one sister, Robin M. Goodwin; three brothers-in-law, Gregory B. Goodwin, Kareem Barksdale and Hassan Barksdale; mother-in-law, Vera D. Barksdale; two sons, Travis R. Reed of East Orange and Christopher Anderson of Alabama; seven grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his mother, Ida Mae Haymon.

SURA 2. AL-BAQARAH

AYAT 286.

Alláh burdens not a person beyond his scope. He gets reward for that (Good) which he has earned, and he is punished for that (Evil) which he has earned. “Our Lord! Punish us not if we forget or fall into error; Our Lord! Lay not on us a burden like that which you did lay on those before us (Jews & Christians); Our Lord! Put not on us a burden greater than we have strength to bear. Pardon us and grant us forgiveness, have mercy on us. You are our Maulá (Patron Supporter & Protector) And give us victory over the disbelieving people. [i]” “AMEEN.”

[1] (v.2:286) Narrated Abu Mas’ud Al-Badri: Alláh’s messenger said, “Whosoever recite the last two verses of Sūra Al-Baqarah at night, that will be sufficient for Him.”
