Obituary

Ann Wellington Williams was born on April 2, 1961 to David Smith and Theodora Elvira Wellington. She resided as a child in Plymouth, Tobago. Ann had six siblings of which she was the second to last.

Ann attended the Harmon's School of SDA where she met her childhood sweetheart, Philip Williams. This bond conceived a beautiful baby girl called Sacha. Ann and Philip couldn't live without each other and got married in 1983.

Ann migrated to the United States in 1989 to be with her husband. Ann enjoyed helping and taking care of people, hence she pursued a career in nursing. Ann worked with Partners in Care upon her passing.

Ann enjoyed cooking, she was a really good cook, name it, she cooked it. She also enjoyed having a good laugh with friends and family. She was a no non-sense person. She believed that in life everyone must work hard to achieve whatever they wanted and don't depend on people.

The Lord called her name and took her hand on the day of April 14, 2015.

To cherish Ann's loving memory, she is survived by and will forever be remembered as the daughter of David Smith (decease), and Theodora Wellington (decease); wife of Philip Williams; mother of Sacha Williams, grandmother of Shaquille Williams; sister of Leona, Frances, Shirley, Carol, Philbert and Enez; aunt of Karen Waheed Browne, Yvette Ottley, Petal, Mechelle and Angela; cousin of Dana Wellington, in-laws, Doyle, Elva and Philbert; friend of Dawleen, June and Darkie; and relatives of the Wellington, Taylor, and Williams.

She will forever live in our hearts. Gone but not forgotten. May her soul rest in perfect peace.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
