George (Musa) Robinson was born to the late George A. Robinson and Berdine Williams on January 4, 1942 in Newark, NJ.

Musa attended Marcus Garvey Elementary School and graduated from Central High School. He was in the metal polishing and plating industry. Musa was the owner of Diamond Polishing & Plating in Newark and worked for Mara Polishing and Plating for several years. He retired and pursued his true passion in politics.

Board Member for twenty-six years. He supplied fresh produce and turkeys to the community. He was a proud member of the Pride of Newark Elk Lodge. He was so proud of the most recent philanthropic initiative that raised money to send a disadvantaged youth to college. as well as promoted voter registration and was an advocate for the seniors.

Musa was a very charismatic man who was always smiling, he was witty, funny and a joy to be around. He loved to dance and was a sharp dresser.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
