Obituary

Irvin Robinson AKA “Al-Alzeem” was born in Orange, NJ. On August 4, 1954 to John and Nannie Robinson. Has fifteen brothers and four sisters, Hilda, John, Earlene, Ruth Ann, Milton, Harny Clarence, Richard and Barbara.

Irvin was raised in Orange and Newark, NJ. He attended Newark Public School system and learned to cook at a young age. He worked at Dodd Town House in East Orange, NJ for a number of years. Irvin also worked for Newark Housing Authority for thirty years where he retired three years ago. Irvin is married to Sharon Anderson whom he met and fell in love and of this love came two daughters and a son from another mother. Married on July 10, 1982 children Irvin (smokey) Williams, Lakisha and Tamika. In Alzeem’s earlier years, he practiced the religion of Islam.

Mr. Robinson was an avid music and movie collector which was his first love. As we stated earlier, he loved to cook and everyone knows him best for his lasagna. Irvin was a great father to his children, very supportive and loving to them all. You could also spot him a mile away because of that smile that everyone so loved, I will miss that smile. He would sit and listen to music for hours on his stereo. He loved to entertain a host of family and friends whenever he could.

Irvin left to rest on April 19, 2015. He was preceded by his parents, John and Nannie Robinson, brother and sisters, Hilda, Earlene, Ruth Ann, Harry, Richard, Barbara and his son, Irvin Williams.

Irvin surviving family members are: his daughters, Lakisha and Tameka; grandchildren, Omar, Nihya, Shakeyla, Elijah, Quamira, Kamille; and a host of great grand’s and nieces and nephews, also his long term companion Doris Daniels and her four sons.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites
in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
