Obituary

Jacqueline Patricia Hunt was born on June 14, 1960 to her loving mother, Helena Edith Carty, and her late father, Ulric (Sonny) Bryant. She was the third oldest of seven children. Jacqueline moved from the French West Indies to the United States at the age of ten. Here she continued her education and graduated from Barringer High School.

Jacqueline was a resident of Newark, NJ for over forty years. She was known to everyone as “Jackie”. Jackie was known for her fun, gentle spirit, beautiful smile, prestige, classy appearance and phenomenal cooking. Jackie was genuinely compassionate, caring and would give her last. Jackie was not a judgmental person, but she would tell it like it is in the most respectful way possible. She was patient, kind and wise beyond her years. Some of Jackie’s hobbies were singing, dancing, cooking, watching movies, and most importantly spending time with her family.

Jackie was the “True” definition of a “Child of God”. She walked by faith, not by sight and lived for her relationship with the Lord. Jackie was a strong believer of “letting go and letting God”! She never stressed knowing her Lord would not forsake her nor leave her stranded. Jackie’s love for the Lord motivated her to get through any obstacles she was faced with throughout life.

Jackie was a loving and affectionate mother before anything, and the indescribable bond that she shared with her children made her world complete. Jackie lives through her children who admire her strength, which made her the best mother, friend, support system, provider and teacher. Throughout her battles, Jackie remained the strongest mentally, physically and emotionally. For those reasons and many more Jackie’s legacy will live on through her children.

Jackie leaves behind six beautiful pieces of her reflection: her two sons, Jimmy Sparger and Deonte Presaud; and her four daughters, Jazzlena Sparger, Valeen Sanon, Mariah Hun and Jahyda Hunt. She also leaves to cherish her precious memories: her three grandchildren, Oreion Hall, Malachi Sparger and Jada Sparger; one daughter-in-law, Rochelle Sparger; her brothers, Lewis Bryant, Ruben Bryant and Juels Carty; aunts, Unille, Audrey, Margie and Coralie; one uncle, Paschal; best friend of seven years who stayed by her side every step of the way, Curtis Allen; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and the extended family.

*As we lay you down to rest
You're free my love, you did your best.*

*No more pain, no more tears
The suffering you endured ends here.*

*Your voice brings joy, your smile brings grace
Your trust, your love...could never be replaced.*

*A beautiful spirit sprinkled with gold
From the crown of your head to the sole of your toes...*

*You're with your Heavenly Father at last...
You and your sisters together again,
smiles that light our path.*

*We kiss you slowly and wave goodbye
My angel in Heaven...until the end of time.*
