Obituary

Philip Roy Ransome made his transition on April 12, 2015 in East Orange, New Jersey. Philip attended Abraham Clark High School in Roselle, New Jersey. Philip worked at New York/New Jersey Port Authority for 20 years as an Operation and Maintenance Engineer Technician. Uncle Phil as he was affectionately called was a well known Newark resident and a fan of the New York Giants (Big Blue) football team.

Philip was predeceased by his mother, Thelma E. Roy, father, Charles E. Davis, Sr., brothers, Kenneth Roy and Charles Davis, Jr., sister, Pauline and wife, Brenda Ransome.

He leaves to mourn: his children, one son, Philip Jr., daughter-in-law and family; four daughters, Charisse, Lawanda, Brittany and Philana; three sisters, Lillian Roy-Orr and Rebekah, Maudella; one brother, Arthur Wilson; one nephew, Spencer; niece, Atavia; great niece, Sa'Roya; six grandchildren, Philip III, Ashley, Yasmin, Christopher, Lakeidra and Lakia; two great grandchildren, Milani and Philip IV; and a host of relatives and friends.

May he rest eternally in Peace.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
