A Mother's Wish

*A mother's wish is that you grow from a boy to a man.
As I sat there counting 10 fingers on your little hands.*

A mother's wish when I dropped you off to school with all the kids you would play nice.

God had you so I had to never think twice.

A mother's wish when I sent you to play sports, whether it was football

or basketball, in my heart I knew you would always soar.

A mother's wish is that you would be a leader of some sort and you did just that dribbling a basketball up and down the court.

A mother's wish is for you to never experience pain even though you navigated the world looking for just someone to blame.

A mother's wish is that she grow old with her babies by her side with a smile on her face filled with joy and pride.

A mother's wish is I wasn't sending you off to heaven this way.

Oh how we all dreaded this day.

So when you're looking down on me and dropping little memories in my mind, the crowd will calm down and I'll be trying to unwind.

I'm going to thank God for wishes being fulfilled as I pray for peace, clarity, and the strength just to deal.

Sleep tight my son as I tuck you in for the last time.

Mommy, Louis, Grandma, Mush, Nas, BB, A'Naj, Gracie, Coaches, Teammates, friends and family will be just fine.
