Reflections of Life

Lamarr “L” Oliver was born in Passaic, NJ on March 9, 1975 to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse and Emily Oliver.

He resided in Paterson, NJ all his life until he departed on April 22, 2015.

He went to Public School #21 and graduated from Passaic County Technical and Vocational High School. He increased his education at Delaware State University and Kean College, where he also studied culinary arts.

Lamarr was a teacher at P.S. 10, PS 6 and Eastside High School. He presently taught at the YMCA Preschool Program. He had a passion with children, art and cooking. He also loved football and played in high school and college, his favorite team was the Raiders. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He was truly a child of God he knew God and read his bible everyday. He really showed his love for life with that wonderful smile he always had on his face.

He leaves behind: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse and Emily Oliver; two brother, Jesse Oliver, Jr. (Miriam) and Eric Oliver (Vivian Nancy) both of Paterson, NJ; two sisters, Denise Oliver Alston (Damon) of Jacksonville, FL and Endora Oliver-Ramos (Raymond) of San Antonio, TX; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and his fiancée, Maria “MJ” Basden and a multitude of friends.

L's Words of Wisdom

In the blink of an eye and in the end what matters isn't how long we lived. But how fully we lived. The good we've done. The friends we made, the love we've shared along the way. It's the journey, just remember that there's so many great journeys ahead of us we still have a chance to make our marks. Site behind site is the ability to lead with clarity. For site is useless without action.
