Naomi Danielle Mondesir was born on May 17th, 2013 to Corey Brock Sr. and Cynthia Mondesir at Jamaica Hospital in Queens, NY. She was the only child between the couple.

Naomi was a vibrant young angel, who enjoyed activities such as listening to music, dancing and cuddling with her blanket. Naomi had a short life span, but it was filled with love and adoration. Her health challenges were no match for the vibrant and loving character, as it shined throughout every echelon of her being.

Naomi is survived by: her two siblings, Corey Jr. and Corrine; her two grandmothers, Shirley and Gardite; her two grandfathers, Walter and Eddy; great grandmother, Mattie Jackson; her four uncles, David, Chris, Eddy and Kingsley; a great aunt, Edwige Michele; and a multitude of other great aunts, uncles, and cousins, each of which will undoubtedly love and miss Naomi.

Naomi was the answer of many prayers by the parents and relatives. Her joy and delight has and will continue to manifest within everyone that was privileged to meet her, or hear about her triumphs through her walk with God. Naomi's amazing strength and unmatched love will continue to live in the hearts and minds of everyone. Although Naomi's physical presence will be greatly missed, her spiritual impact will last forever.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
