Obituary

William Chester Chambers was born on March 20, 1946 in the city of Newark, NJ to the late Alfred Chambers and Thelma Moore. William (aka Butch) was raised in the city of Newark. He lived in the Stella Wright Projects, Quitman Street in Newark. He also lived down the hill on North 15th Street in East Orange and North 18th Street in East Orange. He was educated in the Newark Public School System and he made many friends. He departed this life on April 17, 2015.

Butch worked all his life and held several different jobs. He worked at Deluxe Toy Factory in Elizabeth, NJ, Hillside Metals in Newark, NJ, Ford Motors in Mahwah, NJ, and at the YMWCA in downtown Newark. He later worked in the dietary department of Orange Memorial Hospital in Orange, NJ. He worked there for twenty years before retiring in 1998. He really enjoyed his job and liked his co-workers at Orange Memorial. Butch had three best friends, Melvin Billy and Bobby.

Butch met the late Constance Laws in 1965. The two were married and had three children, Kena Porcher, Sharon Chambers and Steven Chambers. Butch later remarried to Pamela Marshall Chambers on August 22, 1981. Three more children were born to this union, Hasana Marshall, Duquan Marshall and Lionel Marshall.

Butch was loved by many and he went by the nicknames: Big red from Harlem, Mandingo and The Mayor of 118th Street in East Orange, NJ. He loved the rap group Naughty By Nature. They were his favorite rap group and were like family to him. Flocko, Skee and Soup were Butch's main men.

William Chambers had two sisters, Roselyn Chambers and Shirley Chambers; two brothers, Andrew Knight (deceased) and Michael Chambers; nine grandchildren, Shawnie Porcher, Kelvin Porcher, Taliha Chambers, Tyree Chambers, Destiney Mathis, Ishyne Mathis, Stephanie Chambers, Steven Bullock and Rasú Marshall; two great grandchildren, Ariana and Amixi H. Porcher; a very loving son-in-law, Leonard Mathis aka LD; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“Butch, we all love you and are going to miss you!”

It's So Hard to Say Good Bye To Yesterday

Don't just remember good times, but remember all the bad. For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad. But if you must do something, then I have one last request. Forgive me for all the wrongs I've done, and with the love that's left, thank God for my soul's resting, thank God for I've been truly blessed. Thank God for all who loved me, Praise God who loved me the best.

Broken Hearts

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone, a part of us went with you the day God called you Home. A million times we missed you, a million times we cried, if love could have saved you, you never would have died!

Acknowledgements
