Obituary

Yetta May Bullock daughter of the late Ellis and Ietta Bullock was born on March 26, 1928 in New York City. It was here that she graduated from Wadley High School and later worked as a Nurses Aide. She met and married the late Moses Jarmond and gave birth to three boys, Charles, Jerome and Paul and one girl, Margo.

She was the sister to the late, Doris, Constance, Ellis and Vivian Bullock.

During her early adulthood, she enjoyed music and had a passion for jazz music and singing.

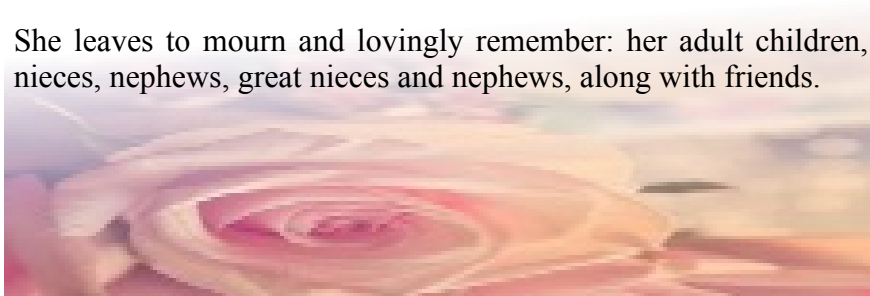

Widowed early in her marriage, she worked on a jewelry line and soon after supported herself and four children as a domestic worker until her retirement.

During her life, she was a devoted Catholic who put her faith first in her life. She became a professed member of the Third Order of St. Francis.

She loved life and people; never forgetting the importance of loyalty and commitment to all of her family and friends.

Yetta May Bullock left this world quietly on April 24, 2015. She will be greatly missed.

She leaves to mourn and lovingly remember: her adult children, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, along with friends.

I'm Still Here

I may be gone but please don't cry
Death is not the last goodbye
Death releases me of my pain
There will come a day we will meet again
Don't be blue and don't be sad
Think back to the fun we had
I am always here I hear you speak
In time of trouble it's me you seek
You don't see me but I see you
I will do my best to pull you through
Speak to me and I will hear
Never far I am always near
Be brave my love do not cry
See you again it's not goodbye
