Obituary

Carolyn Estelle Butler was born on January 23, 1959 in Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, New York. She was the youngest daughter of the late Blamis Garrett and Willie Amelia Butler.

She spent the first eight years of her life in Brooklyn, New York. In the late 1960's the family moved to the Bronx, New York. That is where Carol grew up and lived her adult life.

She was educated in the New York City public school system. Later Carol was employed by the New York Daily News for many years. She was also a certified Nursing Assistant for fifteen years. Carol enjoyed taking care of the elderly.

Carol also enjoyed other things in life such as crocheting, braiding hair, doing word puzzles and reading her Bible.

As the youngest of six daughters, Carol was doted on and protected. There was an abundance of love and more love. She was easy going and easy to be around. There was a quiet spirit about her, along with a rich hearty laugh. She was neat, petite and a sweetheart. Everyone who knew her, loved her.

On April 29, 2015, Carol departed this life. She leaves to cherish: her five sisters, Marilyn, Julia, Edith, Doris and Helene; her nieces, Tekisha, Kyshonna, Tameka, Jenny and Erica; her nephews, Duval, Dushawn, Earl, Dashawn and Korey; her loving cousin, Paulette; her best childhood friend, Barbara Jean; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
