Reflections of Life

Lula Mae Robinson made her transition from this life to her Life everlasting on January 19, 2015.

He Shall Call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him and shew him my salvation. Psalm, 91:15-16

She was born Lula Mae Yarborough on May 8th 1922. In Rocky Mountain, North Carolina. We also found out that her name given at birth by her parents Ned and Lee Irene Yarborough was actually Lula not Lulu. That is one of the many changes that our mother made in her life to keep things exciting. She was the eldest of ten siblings. Lula took her role as the oldest very seriously, and how she loved her sisters, Sally, Teenie, Shirley, Chloe, and of course the baby Arcola!! And her brothers “Those Yarborough boys”, Roosevelt, Chris, George and Freddie. Lula accepted Jesus into her life, and she was anointed at a very young age. She loved Jesus and His word and that’s what kept her and sustained her down through the years.

Lula and her family moved from North Carolina to Caldwell, New Jersey. In Caldwell, NJ, she was enrolled in the Caldwell School system, after finishing her secondary level education, she had to put school on hold for awhile and started to work as a domestic, to help take care of her family. Lula always put God and family first, with that and her outgoing personality and determination, she became a highly recommended and regarded nanny, gourmet cook and a well sought after caterer. The level of success that she achieved would have never been possible today without at four year college degree with special certification. Thank God for God’s favor in her life.

She worked hard and achieved much, but what she loved doing more than anything was being around her family. Her siblings and her many cousins and friends. They loved going to church, all their activities were church based and they loved every minute of it. That’s where she got her training to be an amazing anointed woman of God.

Lulu met and married a sharp debonair gentleman by the name of Jack Val Robinson. He was quite a charmer and very worldly for that time. It was said that “Jack is marrying a church girl” and no one believe it. Jack and Lulu were quite a pair they enjoyed many years of marriage before his death in June of 2000. Together they raised four amazing girls, that became four amazing women, Ertha, Candes, Robin and Jackie. She gave us love, the word of God and a lot of grace to help us mature into responsible, caring, loving, people that she enjoyed in her latter years.

Lulu was an amazing woman, with some flaws but she said they were for her making. She always put God first, she loved the Lord with all her heart and soul. She loved and depended on His Word. She was a dutiful daughter, spectacular sister, wonderful wife, and a marvelous mother and glorious grandmother. Awesome Auntie and a compassionate cousin, she was a friend to the friendless and she never had an enemy that didn't later become her friend. In Lulu's world, there is no such thing as a stranger, you are family. Her brilliant smile and radiant personality made it easy to love her and to be loved by her. Most importantly she was a Child of God, His humble, faithful and willing and obedient servant of The Most High!! Hallelujah!!!

Lulu lived her life to live again in Glory with her heavenly father. Lulu lived her life between the dashes and God honored her with a Long Blessed Life. Just think of the joy that she experienced here cannot be compared for the Joy that awaits her there in That City called Heaven!!!

Her legacy is now being passed on to her surviving siblings, Ernestine Carpenter, Chloe Moore, Shirley Clay and Arcola Yarborough. Her joys of life her daughters, Ertha Riza, Candes Reid, Robin Ajaga, Jackie Robinson-Matthews and son-in-law, John Matthews; her love and legacy continues to flow to her grand and great grandchildren, Shinoya, Shakkara, Brooke, Melissa, Taylor, James, Courtney, Essence, Tyler, Shelly and Morgan. Her love knew no bounds it was extended to her lovable grand-dogs, Toto, Chase, Popi and Paris. She loved and treasured many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I have fought a good fight, I finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me all that day; and not to me only but unto all them that love his appearing. 2 Timothy 4:7-8

God Called Your Name So Softly

*God called your name so softly,
that only you could hear
And no one heard the footsteps
Of angels drawing near.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

*You're always close beside us, in everything we do,
You were our greatest treasure, God's gift to us was you.*

*We will always remember that way you looked,
the way you talked and smiled,
The little things you said and did
to make our lives worthwhile.*

*Each time we look at your picture,
you seem to smile and say,
Don't be sad but courage take
and love each other for my sake.*

*Just a prayer from the family to you,
just a memory fond and true,
In our hearts you will stay forever
because we thought the world of you.*
