Obituary

Augustine Egas was born on 12 March 1964 in New York City. Gus was one of eight children born to Mary Lang and Augustin Egas. Gus is survived by his siblings, Yvette Egas, Juanita McGruder-Egas, Bobbie Wiggins (Lang), Lang, Camella Lang, Myra Lang, Troy Lang and Jay Thomas.

Gus grew up in Harlem and later on the family relocated to the Bronx. Gus made the Bronx his home. He worked as a security guard for over 9 years and 5 years with Forest City Ratner in Harlem. He was passionate about his job and well loved by his co-workers. Gus had a dear friend/co-worker, Manny Daniels. They worked together at Forest City Ratner for 5 years. Manny was Gus' right hand man and more importantly, he supported him on the job. Gus and his beloved girlfriend, Danisia Martin shared a special bond, he cared for her dearly. His mother was his biggest cheerleader, they had a very special relationship and most of all they shared many laughs together.

Gus enjoyed jogging and reading. One of his favorite books was the Bible. He knew and understood the Bible very well. His most joyful time of his life was when he "preached." If you were in his company or just walked by him, you would hear him preach, that's how he expressed himself. Another highlight of Gus' life was the birth of his son. Augustine Avery Egas was born on September 8, 2011. Gus was proud to be a father and truly loved his son.

Gus is also survived by his son, Augustine Avery Egas, slew of cousins, friends and his mother's sister, Katherine husbands, his beloved girlfriend, Danisia Martin.

We celebrate the life our beloved brother Gus who had a Heart of Gold.

The Love of Our Brother

We will miss the love of our brother,
His smile, his laugh and his preaching
Always dancing to the beat of a Michael Jackson Song
Moved like a robot, he danced in his own space
He knew how to make himself happy with his own imagination
He had a soul that was hidden but was released when he preached
The joy of knowing our brother "Gus" will linger in our hearts forever
Remember, Brotherly love is never forgotten.

We are blessed to have shared the love of our brother
