Reflections of Life

Deacon Raymond Edward Robertson was born March 30, 1942 in Cumberland, VA to the late Ollie and Olivia Fields Robertson.

He was a graduate of the Luther P. Jackson High School of Cumberland, VA. He was employed as an Assembler for Mosler Airmatics of Wayne, NJ for twenty-eight years, and Allied Security.

He was a veteran of the United States Army serving during the Vietnam War.

He was a member of the Roger Williams Baptist Church of Passaic, NJ where he was ordained as a Deacon on July 21, 1991. He served on the Usher Board and was a member of the Choir.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ollie and Olivia Robertson; a son, Scott Aaron Robertson; and brothers, Ollie Robertson, Jr., Floyd Robertson and Arthur Robertson.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: his son, Marc Andre Robertson of Salisbury, MD; brothers, Robert Robertson, John Henry Robertson and McDonald Robertson, all of Cumberland, VA; one daughter-in-law, Patrice Robertson; sisters-in-law, Louise Robertson and Essie Robertson; a devoted friend, Betty Vaughan of Passaic, NJ; aunts, Catherine Smith, Mary Dangerfield and Emma Dangerfield; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
