Three Sisters

By: Francis I. Gillespie

We are three sisters Three sisters are we I love each of you, And I know you love me We're not always together, Life sometimes keeps us apart. But we're never separated We're in each other's heart. Now I know we've had our troubles, But we always get thru. The real message is you love me, And I also love you. We have had lots of good times That we'll never forget Sometimes we worry And sometimes we fret But if God ever gave me Something special you see, It might have been the blessing of, Three sisters are we. The Lord above has gave me lots Of happiness and glee But the most special thing he did was Make

Obituary

On March 24, 1988, God released an angel on the earth by the name of Lakeya Nicole Medina. Her parents, Paulette Medina and Darrel Hargrove were honored to receive their bundle of joy. Growing up, Lakeya was a loving, sweet, and respectful child who made friends very easy and loved her family unconditionally. She declared to always be a “Daddy’s Girl.” At the age of eleven, she joined New Bethel Baptist Church in Jersey City, New Jersey and became an active member of Sunday school. Lakeya attended PS#39 School and went on to graduate from Dickerson High School in Jersey City, New Jersey.

After graduating and trying to find her place in life, she began a career at Dish Network as a Customer Service Representative. In 2007, she gave birth to her oldest son, Chris Auguiste and he changed her life forever. In 2010, she gave birth to her second son, Khari Lofton and after his birth, she declared she was out of the baby business for GOOD. Lakeya was a wonderful mom who loved and cared for her sons. Being a mother meant everything to her and her heart belonged to her boys.

Lakeya became employed at the United States Postal Services which was her last place of employment. Co-workers stated, “Lakeya had love for everyone and when you became her friend, it was for life everyone love her.” Lakeya was a beautiful, humble, sweet, loving, caring and respectful young lady. In 2014, she met the love of her life, Yverson Jacques. Who planned to make her his wife. Lakeya, told the family how thankful to God she was for allowing her to meet such a wonderful man! The two spent countless weekends together planning a future for them as a family. Yverson was extremely good to them and loved her strong abilities that she exhibited.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Chris Auguiste and Khai Lofton; her parents, Paulette Medina and Darrel Hargrove; two sisters, Keyona Downes (Zendor Downes) and Siedah Medina; five brothers, Darrel Medina, Theodore Medina, Tyshawn Williams, Nydell Williams and Quan Williams; grandmother, Hattie Hargrove (Robert Lyons); nephews, Jeremy Medina, Zyaire Downes, Zayvion, Downes, Zendor Downes and Zayden McGill; aunts, Alberta Medina, Theon Poindexter, Giavonna Hargrove and Darlisa McGill; two nieces, Jazmin Morris and Kennedy Regan; beloved cousins, Brionna Hargrove, Shante McGill, Shameya McGill and Shameka Regan (Kenny); and her boyfriend who will never forget the love they shared, Yverson Jacques.

Reflections from the Family:

Mommy: my princess has now become a angel watching over me.

Dad: always daddy's Baby girl, missing you like crazy.

Yverson said: Lakeya was a strong tuff woman who took great care of her children.

Auntie Theon said: her smile was her signature and she had unconditional love for her family and friends. Her boys were the love of her life and the love she had for them cannot be duplicated.

Kennedy Regan wrote:

Grandma Hattie said: You were a beautiful amazing young lady and mother. I felt so blessed Whenever we met. You would hug and kiss me and say, hi grandma in your special way I know the angels in heaven rejoiced when they heard God had chosen you to join them. Memories of you will forever be in my heart . This will become my source of strength and comfort, Gone to Soon.

Brionna said: Kind spirit and heart, Always smiling! How you would always play with dolls with me and shameya although you where older.

Tyshawn said: I had a dream about my sister days before I got the news.

Shameka said: My beautiful cousin, the sound of your sweet voice saying, "Hi Meka." You always put a smile on my face at family functions. I'm going to miss the way you would laugh Hysterically at the stories we all told to one another. I love you.

Shameya said: I'm lost for words.

Shante said: My life has changed forever.

Loving you for life Auntie Gia.
