Obituary

Anthony G. Montague, affectionately known as “Jerry” or “Six”, was born November 11, 1947 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Hilda B. Montague. Anthony received a formal education in the Newark Public School system, graduating from West Side High School.

Anthony married his first wife, Viola Woodson in 1966. He worked at Atlantic Chemicals as a chemical plant operator until he retired in 2006. Anthony married his second wife, Victoria in 1986. During this time he had six children, eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren. He was a loving and caring father and grandfather.

Anthony, in his leisure time after retirement, went back to school and took up HVAC at Lincoln Tech. He worked at Bloomfield Cooling for a few years before deciding to stay home and enjoy his free time. He loved spending time with his family and friends going bowling and fishing.

Anthony will truly be missed. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Helen Montague, and his mother, Hilda B. Montague.

Anthony Montague leaves to cherish his precious memories: his sister, Sheila; one brother, Luis; his first wife, Viola Woodson; current wife, Victoria Montague; six children, Anthony R., Lucrecia, Tracy, Trazona, Angelique and Jessica; eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren; and a host of other family and friends. A very special thanks to Cousin Nita, Marcus, Malik, Norman, Willie Fleeton, Denster, Rema, Neighbor and PI.

Gone Fishin'

By: Dalmar Pepper

*I have finished life's chores
assigned to me, so put me
on a boat headed out to sea. Please send along my fishing pole. Where every day is a day to fish, to fill your heart with every wish.*

*Do not worry or feel sad
for me, I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea. We will miss each other for awhile,
but you will come and bring your smile. that will not be long you will see, till we are together you and me.
To all of those that think of me, be happy as I go out to sea. If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'.*
