Obituary

Eleanor Jordan, 94 left us on June 14, 2015 with her family by her side in New York City.

Eleanor Jordan was born April 6, 1921 in Vacherie, LA to the late John Paul D. Dorest and Pauline Harrison. Eleanor was the only surviving sibling of nine children. She later graduated from night school in 1934. She later left Louisiana to move to New York in 1935. She worked with her older sister, Lillian in the family restaurant and later worked as a seamstress in a factory.

Eleanor later met the late James Jordan which she married December 14, 1945. Two years later they had a daughter in November 1947, name Miriam and two years later they had another daughter, Elaine in September 1949 which she later passed away in August 2003.

Eleanor loved watching the baseball games, the Mets and the Yankees, The View and going out to dinner and spending time with family and friends. Eleanor was an active member of Saint Paul Church.

Eleanor is survived by: her daughter, Miriam Freeman; grandkids, James Christopher Freeman and Jeanelle Freeman; great grandson, Devon Mitchell; three great great grands; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and close friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day,

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
