Obituary

Mrs. Alisa Young-Bey entered this life on February 26, 1955. She was born in Staten Island, NY to her predeceased parents, Louise Hill and William Williams. Alisa had a host of siblings which included her sisters, Louise, Vivian, Gloria, Theresa and Sheila along with her brothers, Luis, William Jr. Leonard, Scott and Jason. Alisa was the mother of three daughters, Tameka Bonita Massey, Latiera Monique Massey and Naome Candice Dunnell which are all college graduates and mothers as well. She was also the grandmother of three granddaughters, Kyndness Sharese Irving, Amani Nazziyah Duke and Delviniah Maurie Williams and two grandsons, Mynique Naree Williams and Tyquan Anthony McAllister. Alisa has one great grandson, Keson Lamont Jones. Alisa married in 1989 to the late Francis Young-Bey. They remained married until Francis death which occurred in 1995 and Alisa remained a widower.

Alisa grew up in East Orange, NJ where she attended Columbian Elementary School and became friends with her best friend for over fifty years Shari Kirk. Shari and Alisa friendship was unbreakable. During her childhood years, Alisa enjoyed attending movies, dinners, mall visits and hanging out with her best friend. Shari Kirk was not only Alisa's best friend; she was also the godmother of her first born child, Tameka. Lisa and her best friend together attended Faith, Hope, Charity and Deliverance church in Newark, NJ.

As Alisa grew in life she was taken by a mental illness that did not take her. She went on to further her education by attending several training schools and achieving a certificate in Medical Administration. Alisa was in no way an individual that would allow anything or anyone to control her. To the end Alisa remained a strong, confident, independent, strive for better individual. She possesses the smile that would warm the heart of others and a spirit that just wouldn't quit. Lisa was known for being funny, silly, kind, giving, thoughtful, and loving. Her music is what brought her joy the most and spending time with friends and family as often as possible.

Alisa was called home on August 5, 2015 after enduring a long time of pain and suffering. There is no sadness at this time as we her friends and family is rejoicing in her home coming and the peace and serenity she is granted with our Lord.

Alisa is survived by a host of family and friends, including her daughters, Tameka, Latiera, and Naome, and her siblings, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
