Obituary

George F. Moore, son of the late Leo and Pauline Moore was born December 12, 1952 in Jersey City, NJ.

George was a true scholar and advocate for education. He excelled in his studies and career. Thus, he earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from New Jersey City University, a master's degree in education from Seton Hall University and a doctoral degree from the University of Phoenix.

George was a diligent civil servant of the Jersey City police department since 1981. He worked as a Senior Detective and Patrol Officer until he retired in 2007. George served in many capacities in law enforcement. He was the Director of Security and Consultant in Eatontown and Paramus, NJ. George also worked as a substitute teacher for the Union County Board of Education.

On April 11, 2015, George married his love Frances and together they formed a loving and binding union.

Throughout life, George enjoyed life and the finer things of life. He enjoyed traveling and various genres of music and movies. An advent reader, George loved many forms of literature. An outstanding characteristic about George was that he was a loving husband who fervently loved his wife and a devoted father, grandfather, uncle and friend.

George had an amazingly outgoing personality. There was never a moment when George did not have an encouraging word to share or helpful tools and strategies for a better life.

On Wednesday, August 5, 2015, George F. Moore transitioned from this life at Morristown Medical Center.

He leaves to cherish his legacy, a loving and devoted wife, Frances D. Moore of Hillside, NJ, four children, Gilbert, Felicia, Tiara and Shawnette Moore of New Jersey, eight grandchildren, Pheobe, Isaac, Meredith, Mathias, Malaya, MaKayla, MaLani and Antonio, eleven sisters in law, six brothers in law, two best friends, Michael Pieleck and Chris Hodkinson, and many other relatives and loving friends who will cherish his memory.

To Those I Love

If I should ever leave you
To go along the silent way, grieve not,
Nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were beside you there.
(I'd come - I'd come, could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief be barriers?)
And when you hear a song or see a bird
I loved, please do not let the thought of me
Be sad .. For I am loving you just as I always have .
You were so good to me!
There are so many things I wanted still
To do - so many things to say to you .
Remember that I did not fear . it was
Just leaving you that was so hard to face .
We cannot see beyond . But this I know:
I loved you so - `twas heaven here with you!

Acknowledgements

Frances D. Moore and the Moore family would like to say thank you for all your prayers and support during our time of bereavement. Perhaps you sent a card, a floral piece, sat quietly in a chair, or spoke kind words, or perhaps you were not there at all, or just thought of us on that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much in whatever the part. Special thanks to Rehabilitation Institute at Morristown Memorial, Morristown Medical Center, Bishop Scotland Bailey, Executive Pastor Byron Fields and the Universal Full Gospel family.
