Obituary

Thelma Braxton was born on February 12, 1925 in Richmond, Virginia, to parents, Ollie Jackson and Aileen Norwood.

Thelma attended school in Virginia. She later went on to have three children, two are now deceased.

Thelma was known by all for being very loving and kind. She taught love through her example of love. She was the sweetest woman you would ever meet.

She passed away on August 5, 2015. She will be greatly missed, but not forgotten. We are very happy she is no longer suffering from sickness.

Thelma leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Charles Braxton; twenty-one grandchildren; ten great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and many other family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
