Obituary

Celebrating the life and legacy of Yvonne “Lady Day” Adams Stapleton Brewington. She lived a life span of 71 years. She shared a home in East Orange, NJ with her loving husband, Robert Brewington. She went on to glory on August 30, 2015, after a long courageous bout with her health.

Life began for Yvonne on April 6, 1944 in Newark, NJ. She was born to Clarence Adams and Doris Anthony-Adams. She had two siblings, Veronica Adams King and Clarence H. Adams, Jr.

At age 17, Yvonne gave birth to her first child and only son, Clarence H. Adams III named in honor of her father. She entered into holy matrimony in September of 1963 at the age of 19 to Frank “Butch” Stapleton, Jr. of Elizabeth, NJ. Together they gave birth to their only daughter, Tracy Stapleton in 1964.

Yvonne was educated in Newark, NJ. She obtained her high school diploma and various Theological certificates from Eastern Bible Institute. Yvonne worked for Jersey City Medical Center as well as East Orange General Hospital for several decades in Medical Billing.

Over the years, Yvonne has taken up an array of hobbies. She enjoyed traveling, shopping, arts and crafts, cooking, sewing, caring for her pets and spending as much time as possible with her family.

Yvonne was a devout Christian. She loved the Lord and had ministerial ambitions. She was confident in her eternal existence and rejoiced at the thought of going to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Yvonne is survived by her husband, Robert Brewington; daughter, Tracy Stapleton; sister, Veronica King; six grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren, niece, great niece, and great nephews. Her legacy is of faith in Jesus Christ, marriage, family, and enjoying life.

Yvonne was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence Adams and Doris Anthony-Adams, son, Clarence H. Adams III, brother, Clarence Adams, Jr.

*Forget-me-not, think of me,
the times I made you smile,
Forget-me-not, but don't be sad,
I'm with you all the while.*

*Forget-me not,
when you're in need,
and feel that
no-one's there,
Remember that
I'm still around,
I'm here, I love you,
"I CARE"*

Acknowledgement

Thank you for your support during our time of bereavement. We appreciate and received all gifts of love for the immediate family. Remember that to everything there is a season. In the planting of the forget me not's we celebrate the life of Yvonne in the beauty of the flowers.
