Obituary

Nyfee Zamir Harrell was born November 11, 1993 to the parents of Lisa Harrell and Samuel Patterson in Newark, NJ. He was the third child of five children.

He was educated in the Newark School system where he did receive his GED. He was currently working with Vitality Staffing Agency where he was sent to different locations where he held the job as warehouse laborer.

He was such a fun loving person who always had a loving smile on his face. He loved his family and friends and enjoyed doing whatever he could to help in anyway. He also had a kind disposition and was slow to anger. He enjoyed dancing and taking pictures. He always extended himself to helping others.

He accepted the Lord in his life at an early age and joined St. Paul Sounds of Praise Church in Newark, NJ.

Nyfee leaves to mourn in his passing: his mother, Lisa Harrell; father, Samuel Patterson; step-mother, Tamisha Patterson; one daughter, Nevaeh Harrell; four sisters, Tonette Patterson, Ny'Asia Leaks, Naomi Patterson and Sanaa Thompson; three grandmothers, Annie Mae Patterson, Felecia Harrell and Norma Harrell; grandfather, James White; great grandmother, Louise White; great grandfather, Norman Harrell; aunts, Ebonie Patterson, Theresa Patterson, Altrenna Patterson-Jones, Thea Davis, Gamika White and Jamaya White; three uncles, Markece Harrell, Andra Mott and Richard Harrell; friend/extended father, Najiy Thompson; special friend, ShaQuida White; and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Samuel I. Patterson, Sr.; great grandmother, Leona Harrell and great grandfather, Jim White.

But greater than the sorrow of his death is the joy he spread with his family and friends.

Respectfully Submitted,
The Family of Nyfee Zamir Harrell

The Cord

By Unknown Author

We are connected, my child and I,
by an invisible cord not seen by the eye

It's not like the cord that connects us 'til birth,
This cord can't be seen by any on earth

This cord does it's work right from the start
It binds us together, attached to my heart

I know that it's there, though no one can see
The invisible cord from my child to me

The strength of this cord is hard to describe
It can't be destroyed, it can't be denied

It's stronger than any cord man could create it withstands the test, can hold any weight

And though you are gone, though you're not here with me
The cord is still there, but no one can see

It pulls at my heart, I am bruised, I am sore
But this cord is my lifeline as never before

I am thankful that God connects us this way
A mother and child, death can't take it away!
