Obituary

On March 31, 1921, Agnes Haywood entered the world to the late Jerry and Evelyn Haywood in Savannah, Georgia. She was the first born of three siblings who all preceded her in death, two sisters, Wilhelmina Newton and Florence Lord, one brother, Abraham Haywood "Sonny".

Agnes was raised and educated in New York, where she attended Southern Baptist Church in her early years, under the teachings of Reverend Osbourne. As a teenager she met the late Leonard James McDougal, Sr. And from that union was one son, Leonard James McDougal II, who preceded her in death. She raised two of her youngest grandchildren, Lynette and Leonard.

Agnes worked in New Jersey for many years at the Houbigant Perfume Company. She attended Antioch Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Alston. That is when she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. Later in her journey, she joined Healing From Heaven Temple on November 7, 1982 and received the Holy Ghost on December 1, 1983 underling the teachings of Bishop Stallworth. She loved her church and her Pastor. She sung in the choir and later joined the Mother's Board.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three grandchildren, Stephanie Brown, Lynette McDougal and Leonard James McDougal III; twelve great grands, Travis, Courtney, Brittney, Kashawn, Rachel, ShaneQue, Arianna, Nylin, Duvon, Amaya, Atatri and Amir; three great great grands, Zamar, Kayla and Zion; a host of nieces and nephews; a special niece, Marion; a special nephew, Reggie; and two beautiful cousins, Barbara Lewis Thompson and Detta Patterson.

*Sleep on Grandma, take your rest.
We love you, but God loves you best.*

At Healing From Heaven

He Only Takes The Best

*God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you fade away
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands put to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the Best!*

We love you Grandma!
