Obituary

Carrie Lee Loftin was born on June 19, 1924 in Kinston, North Carolina to the late Moses Loftin and Rosetta Parker. She was the third of four sibling Lavina Loftin (sister), Mary Etta Evans (sister), & Herbert Loftin (brother), preceded her in death. On Tuesday, September 15, 2015 God sent a host of angels for Carrie to return to her heavenly at the age of ninety-one.

In 1944 after graduating from Adkins High School in Kinston, North Carolina, Carrie moved to Harlem, New York to begin her career as a seamstress. Affectionately known as the “The Community’s Mom” always willing to give a helping hand and open her home to others. She was the beacon of light of 148th Street (the block) and the entire community. Carrie enjoyed sewing, cooking, listening to music, (especially Sam Cooke, her favorite artist), and being a great mother to her ten children. Three of which preceded her in death sons, Cornelius Holley, Al-Rahman Abdul Ali (aka Herbert), and daughter, Evelyn Loftin. She will be greatly missed she touched so many lives, in so many ways, than numbers there are to count.

Carrie leaves to cherish her precious memory: her daughters, Michelle Holley and Quadriyyah Ali; her sons, Calvin Holley, Shadeed (aka Dennis) H. Ali (Terrie), Steven Loftin, Kevin Loftin and Louis Loftin (Toni); granddaughters, Tindu, Angela, Rasheedah, Darnique, Kelly, Taahirah and Aasiyah; grandsons, Herbert Jr., Diedre, Calvin, Larry, James, Darnell, Ronald and Shadeed II; and a host of great grands, great great grands, nieces, nephews and cousins.

In Gratitude to Carrie Lee Loftin, The womb that bore us

How do you say thank you to the womb that bore you and who's done so much? Your greatest strength has always been finding the best way out of no way and giving that spirit to us and sharing what's left with others. You put all of your love ones needs above your own. You instilled in us faith in Allah (G-d) to live upright with principles, dignity, and respect, and always define ourselves by our God given potential not by our circumstance. You have been there with us and for us, through happiness and the heartaches, the good times and the bad. You will always be the yardstick upon which we measure ourselves and others. You taught your seven boys how to be men, and your three girls how to be better women, only with Allah's help ALL BY YOUR-SELF. Regardless of your countless roles mother, FATHER, grandmother, sister, aunt or friend, we could depend on your strength, guidance, patience, determinations, stability, encouragement, and most of all your limitless love.

*Affectionately known as mom to all, you have brought sunshine to our lives and multiple of many. A special servant of Allah (G-d,) and his gift to each and every one of us. We know our humble but failed attempts of "Thank You" can never pale in comparison to the love you've given us. However, we will forever pray Allah (G-d) blessings and your lessons continue to fill our hearts and the best of our heads to live our lives just a portion the way you lived yours. Then we know we will meet again. Limitless love returned.
The Family.*
