Obituary

On September 26, 2015 our beloved mother, Gail Leslie Brewster was taken to be with God our Father. Gail was born March 2, 1955 in Harlem, New York. In 1960, Gail and her family moved to East New York, Brooklyn. While living in Brooklyn, Gail met her future husband, Curtis Wright.

Gail and Curtis moved to Amsterdam Housing projects in Manhattan where they raised their four children, Tacha, Teresa, Kurtis and Colen. Gail was employed by Aon Hewitt until her demise. She was a person who had unconditional love for everyone. Her door was open to anyone who needed love. If you needed someone to talk to or a shoulder to cry on, she would always be there for you. She would open her heart to those who needed love. She was a mother to those who needed one. She always put family and friends before herself, she made sure if you were hungry you would get something to eat. We all loved her and will miss her. She will always be in our hearts forever.

Gail leaves behind: her loving children, Tacha, Teresa, Kurtis and Colen; her nine grandchildren; one great grandson; her former husband, Curtis Wright; four siblings, Ronald, Karen, Maureen and Alicia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and special friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
