Obituary

Kay Patricia Hepburn passed at 5:41am on 10 October 2015 at Calvary Hospice in Bronx, New York.

Kay was born on 2 October 1943 at Harlem Hospital to Ferdinand "Ferdie" Hepburn and Muriel Rollins. Over the years, she worked various jobs and after much effort she fulfilled her lifelong passion by graduating from Mid-Manhattan Adult Learning Center as a Licensed Practicing Nurse in 1991; culminating her career at Isabella Nursing Home in the Bronx, NY.

Kay is preceded by husbands, Clark E. Cobb and Rohalia "Bud" Roberts. She is kept in loving memory by: her children, CaiphiaRenee Hepburn, Stephanie Cobb, Terence Cobb, Eleanor Cobb and Chris Roberts; grandchildren, Cory Hepburn, Michael Johnson, Manny Cobb, Avery Bethel, Maya Cobb, David Campbell, Nigel Collins and Cianna Roberts; great-grandchildren, ZoieBrisbane and Liam Johnson; and nephew, Steven Rollins.

Kay is best remembered for her strength and character. Kay's sense of humor was coupled with her giving nature. In her community, she will be remembered as a force of nature protecting those she loved and standing up for causes that she believed in. She was famous for her spaghetti which she shared liberally with her family and strangers alike. Kay was an avid movie fan and a huge fan of music, especially Earth Wind and Fire. On most days you would find her surrounded by loved ones doing one or the other. She will be remembered and missed by all who knew her.

Im Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
