Obituary

Lillian Griffin was born to the late Jeff and Lucille Griffin on March 15, 1938 in Philadelphia, PA. Lillian was one of four kids which three she preceded in death.

Lillian attended the Philadelphia school system where she achieved her high school diploma at William Pen High School. She later joined the workforce where she worked various jobs.

She went on to meet Richard Robinson which also preceded her in death. From that union they had two kids, Fredrick and Darlene Griffin. And years that follow, in 1967 she moved to New York where she later met and married George G. Kiture who also migrated to New York from the Virgin Islands. Some years later, she gave birth to her last child, Dawna M. Kiture.

Lillian Griffin worked for the city of New York where she retired after 28 years.

Most will say she was kind-hearted, outspoken and free hearted.

She leaves behind to mourn: her three children, Fredrick Griffin, Darlene Griffin and Dawna Kiture; four grandchildren, James Truitt, Alia Richardson, Saquanda Kiture and Tatian A. Chambers; and a host of nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
