Obituary

Martha Courvoisier was born November 5, 1951 in Siloam, Georgia to the late Tom Henry "Buster" Brown and Mrs. Emma Lue Brown. She moved to Buffalo, New York in 1965 and then to New York, New York in 1969.

Martha worked as a P. A. A. for Central Park Precient, where she dedicated thirty years of service to the N.Y.P.D. She was a beautiful, intelligent woman with a heart of gold. Martha was known for her generosity and willingness to lend a helping hand. She was also known for her advice and bluntness. If you didn't want the raw truth....then don't ask Martha. She was loved by many and duplicated by none. She will be greatly missed.

Martha departed this life on October 31, 2015 and went home to be with our Savior in that land free of sickness, sorrow and pain.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her second mother, Mamie Jefferson of Siloam, GA; her second father, Leroy Jefferson; one daughter, Yvette J. Pizarro-Hargrave (Richard) of High Point, NC; five grandchildren, Lynique, Pachelle, Quinseya, Keith and Niahna; six great grands, Amera, J'Sean, Kaidyn, Laella, Khasidy and Kennedy; seven siblings, Johnny R. Brown (Jean), Albert H. Brown, Emma Julia Rhodes (Nelson), Edith D. Jefferson, Gregory Jefferson, Donald Jefferson (Mary), and Edward Jefferson (Brenda); and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
