Obituary

HURLEY LEE WILLIAMS was born in Franklin County, North Carolina on February 24, 1942 to Calvert and Caroline (Clemons) Williams, who preceded him in death. He departed this life on November 23, 2015 at the age of 73.

Hurley, affectionately known as “Pop- Pop” to his grandchildren, attended the public school system in Louisburg, NC and graduated from Perry’s High School in 1960. He also served as the school bus driver for two years. Hurley married Elizabeth Hawkins in 1961 and to this union, four children were born. Upon relocating to New Jersey, he created his home in East Orange. He gained employment with Bell Laboratories (which later became Lucent Technologies) as a maintenance worker and after obtaining a Blue Seal License, promoted to a Watch Engineer (Building Specialist). In 2010, after more than 40 years of dedicated service, he retired. In his leisure, he enjoyed fixing cars with his friend, Phil, at “Phil’s Service Station” and taking trips to the Sand’s Casino.

Hurley loved music and would often listen to Sam Cooke, Otis Reading and the Temptations. His distinctive voice was a source of humor for all who knew him. He took the most pleasure in his family. With a kind and giving heart, he was the type of person who offered help whenever and however he could.

Left to cherish his memory is his beloved wife, Elizabeth of Louisburg NC; his children: Bernadine (Faruq) of East Orange, NJ, Tyrone (Ronda) of North Plainfield, NJ, Monica (Special Friend, Ted) of West Orange and Hurley Jr. (Queen) of Orlando, FL; nine adored grandchildren: Alimah, Jibril, Jadir, Faruq Jr., Ayshah, Anisah, Amarhi, Deondre, and Farid. He also leaves his surviving brothers and sisters: Thaddeus Williams, Marcellous Williams, Bessie King, Cora Wylie (Samuel), Caroline Morton, Christine Jackson, and Roger Williams; one maternal aunt, Reolia Barnes. Preceding him in death were his brothers, Curtis and Willie Thenis Williams. In addition, he leave a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Broken Chain

By Unknown

We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you,
The day God called you home
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side
Our Family chain is broke,
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one,
The Chain will link again.
